Assistant Director

3/17/20

Dear Parents,

On Monday, Governor Murphy ordered all PreK-12 Public, Private, and Parochial schools in New Jersey closed effective Wednesday, 3/18/20. Therefore, today, Tuesday, 3/17, will be our last day of school for the next several weeks. I have included below the procedures to be followed for ongoing instructional and counseling support for your children during the closure period.

Instructional Support: Due to this extended school closure, we will be implementing the at-home learning plan. If your child received a packet of work on Friday 3/13/20, they may open it and begin completing their assignments. If your child received a handout detailing instructions on how to use Kidblog.org, they may begin completing assignments on the internet. If you have any questions about the work, student usernames, or student passwords, please contact the Supervisor of Instruction, Ms. McCarthy at lisamccarthy@northhudsonacademy.org or leave a message at the school (201-865-9577). Students are expected to complete and return their packets when school reopens, or submit their answers on Kidblog.org daily.

We have attached the login instructions for Kidblog.org as well, again.

Counseling Support: You may contact Ms. Fragoso by calling the school (201-865-9577), and leaving a voice message or emailing her at mfragoso@northhudsonacademy.org, should your child need counseling.

We will update the website www.northhudsonacademy.org and the message on the school's voicemail system with any updates and information regarding school reopening.

Thank you for your continued support and patience. May you and all of your family members stay healthy and safe.

Sincerely,

Dr. McCarthy
